Sir,

With reference to para 2 (g) of Government Order No. 5113-63 San. 86-13-35 dated the 8th February 1917 sanctioning the reconstitution of the Central Sanitary Board, tentatively for one year, I have the honor to state that from 1st March 1917 up to date the Board have considered and passed resolutions on eighteen sanitary schemes and subjects. The two non-official members on the Board gave valuable advice in every case, for which the Department is much indebted to them.
